

Designer and design technologist with 20+ years across product design and front-end. Crafting & building design systems, token pipelines, and coded prototypes that carry design intent cleanly into engineering. Recent work centers on AI-assisted prototyping and internal tooling that help teams move faster and ship with more confidence.

Independent Practice
Apr 2020 – Present
Remote

Principal Designer

- Leading a UI and design-systems modernization for an enterprise SaaS platform: a token-based Figma component library plus rebuilt navigation and record views
- Building the design-to-code workflow and coded prototypes (HTML, CSS/SCSS, JavaScript) that carry design intent into engineering as working reference, not static specs
- Using AI-assisted tooling for prototyping and code scaffolding to speed exploration and cut repetitive build work
- Co-founded a real-estate tech startup and architected its theme-able, IDX-capable design system for a headless-CMS platform serving independent agents and brokerages
- Led end-to-end design for a white-label financial onboarding platform, cutting abandonment ~12% with a clearer flow and better in-context feedback
